

As an amateur radio operator for 25 years and the holder of an Extra Class license and volunteer examiner, I fully support without exception, the proposed license restructuring as recommended by the ARRL.

Consolidating license classes and offering an new entry class will reduce burden on volunteer examiners, volunteer examine coordinators and the FCC.

Maintaining a 5 WPM requirement for the Extra Class License is completely appropriate for those seeking the top license in the amateur radio service.